

IL MONDO – Italian Journal, Economic Week edition – October 2008 Issue

English Version

"Mr. Riccardo Belloni works in the field of the Executive Consulting since 1973. He has been a Partner of some prestigious Italian consulting companies, by developing for national and International companies some executive consulting projects/interventions, organization development, research, recruitment and personnel evaluation.

Chairman and Executive Partner of MEGA HR Consulting Group srl, he studied methods and tools that are always up-to-date and personalized in accordance with his clients' needs.

"We do not give any importance to the quantitative development of the activities", says Mr. Belloni, "we'd rather prefer the quality of the job. For this reason our company has been labeled as Boutique for the Executive Direction. An innovative and traditional approach which allow us to be the Business Partners of reference for consulting projects, research and recruitment of high profile personnel, in line with the emergent markets requirements. According to the above mentioned requirements, we elaborate the interventions that take advantage of synergies and distinguishing expertise of our network by harmonizing multidisciplinary consulting teams."

With thousands of projects brought to an end, MEGA HR Consulting Group srl is nowadays the sole Italian point of reference of World Search Group, a consulting worldwide company with 23 partners in executive search".