WORLD SEARCH GROUP WELCOMES TWO MEMBER FIRMS

Toronto, Canada – January 26, 2009 --- World Search Group (WSG) recently welcomed two more members to its growing organization. The addition of MegaHR Consulting Group of Italy and Futurebridge Consulting Ltd. of Switzerland in the Europe/Middle East/Asia region bring WSG's member firms to 32 in 25 countries and 36 cities with a total of 41 office locations worldwide.

MegaHR Consulting Group was started in 1995 by Ricardo Belloni, Owner and Managing Director. Key contact, Alberto Belloni, Partner and Business Development Manager, along with a team of partners bring more than 30 years of human resources business experience to WSG. MegaHR is headquartered in Rome with a network of offices in Milan, Turin and Florence. The firm's distinctive feature is the continuing relationship with its customers in the logic of business partnerships.

In addition to executive and professional search, MegaHR is specialized in management audit, talent management, HR development and managerial training & coaching. Its core industry specialties include Energy & Natural Resources, Financial Services, Industry – Manufacturing & Distribution, Professional Services and Technology. The firm's impressive list of national and multinational companies provides an excellent opportunity for business growth for both MegaHR and WSG members around the world.

Alberto Belloni is very excited about this. He says: "We strongly believe in the prospect of expanding our business globally and World Search Group has given us this vehicle. Already we are working together with our new partners on potential opportunities."

Futurebridge Consulting Ltd. was founded by co-owners and managing partners Louis Renggli and Hans-Peter Würmli. They average 30 years of business experience and more than 10 years in the executive search industry. The mandates of Futurebridge Consulting are exclusively handled by the owners and partners in person who are all multilingual.

In addition to finding outstanding candidates for top level positions through a targeted, direct approach, Futurebridge also provides consulting services for both national and international companies. Its customer base includes major global players, established family firms and SMEs, start-ups, and public companies and organizations. Specialty industry areas include Energy & Natural Resources, Financial Services, Industry –Manufacturing & Distribution, Professional Services and Technology.

Hans-Peter Würmli believes that working with the World Search Group team will be a win-win situation for all. He adds: “Our base in Switzerland is key, as this is the location where many international firms reside. We are looking forward to developing business relationships with our new partners.”
